Dear Gar & Jocelyn,

Mar 9 1983

Hi, and thank you very much for the book and scarf. They arrived a few days ago by mail. Receiving gifts spontaneously like that always adds an element of surprise. So, thank you.

I have something to tell you that is very difficult for me to say. I can only tell you how it feels and hope that you both will understand.

I think I've made myself pretty clear about not being aligned with you in opposing CSC. And, I know that you both feel that you have done nothing illegal and that you are just defending yourselves. However, there's a part to that, that just doesn't ring true for me. That is that I think you have provoked attack.

So, for as long as things appear to be progressing this way I think it would be best if we weren't in comm and didn't socialize as inevitably the conversations turn to the subject of the Armstrong vs. CSC cases and views.

On the other hand I will support you in any effort you want to make to settle and make peace with CSC in a way that works for both.

This doesn't mean I have changed positions or sides, it is just to let you know where I stand and what you can and cannot count on me for.

I hope all things work out for the best.

Love,
Laurel
